

General Assembly

January Session, 2001

Amendment

LCO No. 8811

Offered by:

REP. EBERLE, 15th Dist.

To: Subst. House Bill No. 6982

File No. 601

Cal. No. 412

"AN ACT CONCERNING THE GOOD SAMARITAN LAW AND THE USE OF AUTOMATIC EXTERNAL DEFIBRILLATORS."

1 Strike out everything after the enacting clause and substitute the 2 following in lieu thereof:

3 "Section 22a-19a of the general statutes is repealed and the following 4 is substituted in lieu thereof:

5 The provisions of sections 22a-15 to 22a-19, inclusive, shall be 6 applicable to the unreasonable destruction of historic structures and 7 landmarks of the state, which shall be those properties (1) listed or 8 under consideration for listing as individual units on the National 9 Register of Historic Places (16 USC 470a, as amended), or (2) which are 10 a part of a district listed or under consideration for listing on said
11 national register and which have been determined by the State Historic 12 Preservation Board to contribute to the historic significance of such 13 district. If the plaintiff in any such action cannot make a prima facie 14 showing that the conduct of the defendant, acting alone or in 15 combination with others, has or is likely unreasonably to destroy the 16 public trust in such historic structures or landmarks, the court shall tax 17 all costs for the action to the plaintiff. No property that contains 18 buildings less than seventy-five years old shall be deemed to be under 19 consideration for listing on the National Register of Historic Places, for 20 purposes of this section, if: (A) The owner of such property has 21 delivered to the Director of the Connecticut Historical Commission a 22 written and notarized objection to the listing of such property which 23 certifies such person's ownership of the property and provided such 24 written and notarized objection has not been withdrawn or rescinded

25 in writing; or (B) the owner of said property has not received written 26 notice from the Director of the Connecticut Historical Commission that 27 includes both: (i) Notice that said property is included as part of a 28 district that is under consideration for listing on the national register; 29 and (ii) the names and addresses of all other property owners and 30 respective properties proposed for inclusion in such district; or (C) the 31 owner of such property has not received written notice from the State
32 Historic Preservation Board that said property is deemed to contribute 33 to the historic significance of such district; or (D) the Director of the 34 Connecticut Historical Commission has received written and notarized 35 objections from a majority of the owners of properties proposed to be 36 included in the district which certify the ownership of the respective 37 properties and object to the listing of the owner's respective property 38 on the national register as part of the proposed district."
